Bealeton Man Charged With Possession of Child Pornography

Sheriff's detectives assigned to the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force initiated an investigation in February after receiving a cyber tip regarding the sharing of child sexual abuse images on a Yahoo messenger account in Fauquier County. During the investigation a search warrant was executed at an address in the Bealeton area where a computer was seized.

This investigation resulted in the arrest of Daniel Wayne Jackson, 28, of Bealeton, Virginia. Jackson is charged with three counts of possessing child pornography. Jackson turned himself in on Monday, February 27, 2017. Jackson was held with no bond at the time of his arrest.
